The purpose of this agreement is to ensure the legal, moral, and ethical use of computer and internet resources in the Library.

Conditions of Use

1. Community users must comply with North Island College Policy #3.06 Community Code of Academic, Personal and Professional Conduct (Code of Conduct) and the Canadian Copyright Act.

2. North Island College computers and internet resources are provided to NIC students, faculty, staff, and the public for educational purposes; community users may use NIC computers only if sufficient resources are available at the time.

3. Educational purposes include access to Library catalogs, library licensed digital resources and databases, and other internet resources made available for research, study, and learning.

4. Community users are prohibited from using computing resources for purposes unrelated to research, study and learning.

6. As material posted on the Internet is unregulated, the Library does not guarantee the authenticity, reliability or safety of information retrieved.

7. Use of NIC computing resources for the purpose of conducting private business or commercial activities is prohibited.

8. Community users may not transmit or display on their work screens any images, sounds or messages which create an atmosphere of discomfort or harassment for others, including but not limited to pornography and violence.

9. The receipt, transmission or display of offensive images, sounds or messages is a violation of this agreement.

10. Community users may not attempt to degrade system performance or capability, or negatively affect the work of others.

12. Chat and gaming activities are not permitted.
Library Rights

1. Library staff may impose time limits on computer use and may ask the patron to end their session if the computer is required by a NIC student, staff or faculty member.

2. The library reserves the right to designate computers for a specific purpose.

Consequences of violation of Agreement

Failure to comply with these regulations may result in:
- suspension or loss of computer privileges
- removal from the library
- notification of the RCMP and/or other authorities as is deemed appropriate
- suspension of library access and ban from all NIC properties

My signature below acknowledges that I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions and that I understand that this agreement is binding and enforceable.
